

Pastor Brian Wade was born in Washington DC and grew up in Prince George County, Maryland. He attended Washington Bible College, where he pursued a degree in Pastoral Care. He later attended Liberty University, continuing his studies in Christian Counseling. After pastoring at Southeast Christian Fellowship Church in Washington DC and Centerpoint Church in Annapolis Maryland, in 2018 he became the Senior Pastor at Centerpoint Kent Island located in Maryland, where he currently pastors now.

Pastor Brian is married to Rosie Wade who he affectionately calls “His All”. They have four children, three sons and one daughter: Zephaniah, Tyler, Malcolm and Olivia.

Pastor Brian’s passion is to watch people grow in a love relationship with God and to see them explore the gifts and talents God has given them. He loves to spend time with family, including going to the movies, comic book stores, and family vacations. One of his favorite pastimes is talking sports, and secretly believes he is the world’s great’s sports broadcaster in his head.
